To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to recommend to you Mike and Bryn Kelly, who have conducted several More Excellent Way conferences in our church building. Though I have attended only a small portion of the conference sessions myself, I have talked to many people who have been very enthusiastic about the fruit of this conference in their lives. Many have received physical healings, and others have been set free of areas of spiritual bondage, resulting in new joy and freedom.

In addition, Mike and Bryn have always been a blessing to work with. Their lives reflect a grace, humility, and commitment to God that are an example to the body of Christ.

Sincerely,

Kenneth L. Ritz
